

WORLD CURLING BIDDING GUIDELINES

World Junior Curling Championships and World Junior B Curling Championships

BACKGROUND

Following the changes to the format to expand the WJCC to 16 teams World Curling are seeking hosts for the World Junior and Junior B Curling Championships events for the next Olympic cycle.

It is thought that these events would be best hosted in a large Curling Club environment (with space for seating for the WJCC), but World Curling would be open to bids based on small arenas if the case can be made that this is in the interest of the event in that locality.

As the Local Organisers you will receive the majority of branding opportunities, an example of how this could look is included in this document, however especially for events hosted in Clubs alternative layouts will be considered to minimise disruption. You will receive all of the ticket income generated by the event to go towards the cost of staging the event along with any funds raised through local partnerships with government, tourist and municipal agencies.

These are important events of great importance in developing the talent of the future, it is your chance to put your host venue on the Curling map and derive significant interest through online and social media.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this document is to identify the general requirements for hosting one of the above events, and the information which should be included in the host site's bid package.

The bid must include written approval from the host's World Curling affiliated National Curling Association/Federation and should clearly indicate which event you wish to host.

A major contribution to the successful outcome of such a bid could be the evidence of support, both financially and value in kind, of Government (Federal, Provincial, State or Municipal), and other agencies, tourist organisations, etc. The bid package should include details of any anticipated participation and contribution from such bodies.

It should be stressed that, prior to a bid package being submitted, every opportunity will be given to the Organising Committee (OC) of a potential host site to discuss and clarify all aspects of the requirements. In many cases, final decisions will be agreed by negotiation.
